AMAG is an international publishing house based in Portugal, dedicated to the conception, development and meticulous publication of books and products related to architecture and design.
Our work spans three distinct areas: MAGAZINES, BOOKS and OBJECTS.

We approach each project as a challenge and an opportunity to create unique and meaningful works, whose impact extends beyond the page or the product. Guided by a deeply conceptual methodology, we aim to achieve the highest standards of quality in everything we produce. Our publications are distinguished by their refined graphic design and commitment to timeless values, deliberately distancing us from the industry's fleeting trends.

We believe architecture deserves to be experienced. That's why, beyond our printed works, we develop complementary initiatives that enrich engagement and deepen understanding, offering our readers and clients varied experiences that challenge, inform and inspire.

2026 marks our 15th anniversary, and as we celebrate this milestone, we have been reflecting on the past few years and realise, with both pride and humility, that they have been extraordinary...!

We have the honour to be granted with the confidence from more than 134 published practices and theoretical contributions by 132 architects from over 26 countries, that resulted in 133 titles (including 9 upcoming titles) and 12 objects.

AMAG MAGAZINE is an international architecture technical magazine published since December 2011 by AMAG PUBLISHER. In March 2023, a new brand identity was launched to mark the launch of a new series dedicated exclusively to Portuguese architecture, AMAG PT, and to simultaneously reinforce the maturity and timeless character of AMAG.

Both series, AMAG (international architecture) and AMAG PT (Portuguese architecture), are published quarterly and simultaneously. AMAG PT is offered free of charge to all AMAG subscribers, but can also be purchased as a single issue by any customer.

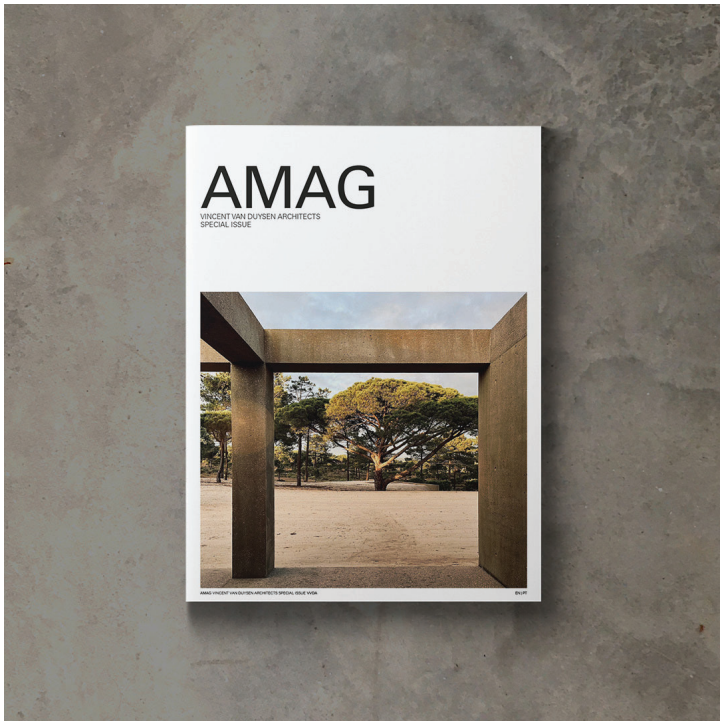

Collectible and timeless, AMAG is a living, rigorous and inspiring archive. It is developed through a minimalist and meticulous graphic design, serving as a working tool to promote timeless architecture, featuring not only renowned and established practices from around the world, but also lesser-known and emerging ones.

note:
double and special issues may have an increased cover price like at AMAG 18 or 25

IN THE WORLD

As a publisher, we believe it is our responsibility to promote and celebrate architecture, creating a space for critical dialogue, thoughtful reflection and a lasting impact.

In addition to a strong physical presence in the most renowned and respected bookshops worldwide, AMAG also has a very prominent online presence, through Instagram, its email database and its online shop. All of this is updated daily to keep readers and followers of the AMAG Community up to date with the latest news.
